He has to his credit several paper published in National and International Journals of reute”.

Then Dr. Pargat Singh Gharcha, Principal, GHG Khalsa College of Education formally welcomed Mr. Parminder Singh Bhogal.

Mr. Parminder Singh Bhogal in his address threw light on the making of Indian Constitution and highlighted the features of the constitution in detail. In his speech he focused on the The Constitution Day which is also known as Samvidhan Divas is celebrated across the country on November 26. The day is celebrated to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. The Constituent Assembly of India, which was founded in 1946 to formulate the Constitution of India, adopted the same on November 26, 1949, and came into effect on January 26, 1950, which is known as the Republic Day of India. The Government of India started celebrating November 26 as Constitution Day from 2015. He elaborated some of the facts about the supreme-rule book (Constitution of India) that young minds of the country should know. He also threw light on The Right to Property (Article 31) was also one of the fundamental rights and why it was deleted with the 44th Amendment in 1978.

The Dr. Satveer Kaur Gill Assistant Professor, formally extended Vote of Thanks.

Zoom Meeting was ended with the recitation of National Anthem by all the participants.

Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, Principal of the college congratulated the Social Vision club incharges Dr. Jasleen Kaur, Dr. Jasvir Kaur and Dr. Satveer Kaur Gill for organizing the event and guided the students to be aware about the values of the constitution for the betterment of the society.
