Dr. Jagjit Singh from Punjabi Sahitya Sabha of the College formally welcomed the chief guest and faculty members present on the occasion. Dr. Mini Sharma from English Literary Society recited a poem highlighting the role played by teachers in shaping the personality of the students. Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, Principal of the college, through his speech acknowledged the role played by teachers in building a poised society. He also highlighted that teachers constitute most precious human resource of the society. Dr. H.S. Brar in his address said that teachers guide their students so that each one may become a person of character and develop into an upright citizen leading a life of dignity and self-respect. The event concluded with the singing of National Anthem.

National Education Day

Language Clubs of G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar organized an Extension lecture on the topic “Innovative Learning on Sustainable Future” to commemorate National Education Day. This day is celebrated every year on November 11, 2023 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, first Education minister of independent India. Dr. Gurwinder Singh from Punjabi Department of G.H.G.H. Harparkash College of Education, Sidhwan Khurd acted as resource person on the occasion. The lecture was organized under the faculty exchange programme. The lecture commenced with the College prayer followed by formal welcome of the resource person by Dr. Jagjit Singh from Punjabi Literary Society of the College. Dr. Gurwinder Singh while interacting with the faculty and students highlighted the contribution of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad to the Education system of independent India. He further elaborated that The Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR), Sahitya Academy, Lalit Kala Academy, Sangeet Natak Academy, Indian Institute of Technology and Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) were set up under his guidance. Dr. Mini Sharma from the Blue Bells English literary Society of the College presented Vote of thanks at the end of the event. Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, Principal of the College appreciated the efforts of language clubs of the College for successfully organizing the lecture.

UNICEF day celebration

G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar celebrated UNICEF Day on December 11, 2023 in the College campus. A special lecture was organized by the Red Ribbon Club and Language Clubs of the College on this occasion. S. Jagpal Singh, Press reporter “Ajit”, Ms. Bindu Uppal, Press reporter “Dainik Jagran”, S. Harpreet Singh Ladi, Press reporter, “Punjabi Jagran and Pehredar” and S. Jagroop Singh from Web Channel, Ajit were guest speakers on the occasion. The event commenced with the College Shabad followed by formal welcome of the speakers by Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, Principal of the College. S. Jagpal Singh while interacting with the students on the Importance of Celebrating UNICEF Day said that UNICEF, also known as the United Nations Children's Emergency Fund, is celebrated worldwide every year on 11th December to reimagine a better future for every child. UNICEF works in over 190 countries and territories to save children's lives, to defend their rights, and to help them fulfill their potential, from early childhood through adolescence. Ms. Bindu Uppal highlighted that the educational institutions must organize activities like writing slogans, poems and prepare posters on Rights of every child seeking Safe Shelter, Proper Nutrition, Child Protection from Disasters and Conflicts, Equality, Education, Social Inclusion. She said that these activities not only create awareness about the role of UNICEF in societies worldwide but at the same time, students also realized how children's rights are violated in different parts of the world and how they can be protected and addressed. S. Jagroop Singh highlighted the theme of UNICEF Day 2023 i.e. "For Every Children, Every Right" while S. Harpreet Ladi shared UNICEF Plan for 2023 with the students. The event concluded with the singing of National Anthem.
